

Mr. Corneal McLemore

April 28, 1958 - September 4, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Corneal McLemore was born on April 28, 1958 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Horace McLemore and Doris Larkins whom preceded him in death. Corneal McLemore attended Detroit Public Schools. While in high school, Corneal McLemore participated in football, track and field, baseball, and basketball.

Corneal McLemore graduated from Murray Wright High School in 1975. After high school, Corneal McLemore found employment in 1976 with Ford Motor Company where he worked as a material handler until his retirement in 2006 at the age of 48.

He was joined in holy matrimony with Sharon Elaine McLemore for 46 years. To this union, four children were born. Corneal McLemore was known by many nicknames, all with their own connection to someone or something: Mac, Nail, Face, Corn, and the Hammer. If you know, you know.

Corneal McLemore loved competition. He claimed to be the best at everything, BidWhist, bowling, horse shoes, swimming, etc. You name it, he could do it and he would let you know that he was the best at it. You might hear him say, "Put your money up," "Come on nah what you want to do."

Another of his famous sayings was when we traveled "Follow Me," man how many u-turns did we make before we reached our destination. (LOL)

Corneal McLemore departed this life on September 4, 2024. He is preceded in death by his son Marlon McLemore; brothers Horace McLemore, Sr., James

McLemore and Mario Horace McLemore.

He leaves to cherish his memories: wife Sharon Elaine McLemore; children Marques McLemore (Cherry), Kristina Holly (Anthony), Martelle (special friend Nicole); brothers Malvin McLemore (Jamie), Curtis McLemore; sisters Marie Davis and Gloria Jones (Les); ten grandbabies; and a host of in-law siblings, nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
