“ Cornelius was one of those rare students who leaves a lasting mark on your heart.

I first met him as a 6th grader and had the privilege of teaching him through 8th grade, and later again in the transition program.

Watching him grow over those years was a true gift.

He had the biggest smile, one that could light up any room. He loved being around his friends and out in the community. In the transition program, he and I worked the counter at Full Circle

Resale Store. He greeted every customer with warmth, excitement, and genuine joy. That energy was simply who he was.

Even in high school, I witnessed him happily greet students in the hallway, and they greeted him back just as warmly. Cornelius made people feel seen and welcomed.

As a teacher, you hope to make a difference in your students' lives.

Sometimes, though, a student makes a difference in yours.

Cornelius did that for me.

His smile, his warmth, and the love he gave so freely will be deeply missed. I am grateful for the blessing of having known him, and will miss him dearly.
