

Mr. Cornelius Crenshaw III

January 19, 1968 - June 30, 2014

His Story:

Cornelius Crenshaw III was born on January 19, 1968 in Birmingham, Alabama the oldest child born to Cornelius Crenshaw, Jr. and the late Patricia Ann Crenshaw.

Cornelius and his family moved to the westside of Detroit, Michigan in 1968. In 1986, he graduated from Henry Ford High School, a part of the Detroit Public Schools system. He furthered his education by attending Oakland Community College for respiratory therapy in 1989.

Cornelius was employed as a manufacturing technician with Ford Motor Company Romeo Ford Engine Plant from 1990 until his untimely passing.

In 1995, Cornelius moved to Warren, Michigan where he met his wife, Shonda Mills and stepdaughter, LaShonda Mills. In 1997, they were blessed with a son, Cornelius Crenshaw IV. Cornelius and Shonda exchanged vows August 29, 2001

The entire family gave their life to Christ in 2006 at Second Ebenezer Christian Church on Detroit's westside.

Cornelius was a very loving person that cared so much about his family. He loved music, enjoyed working out and staying in shape. He was a very strong, independent and a dedicated worker.

He was loved by his family who will cherish his memories.
