“ My heart is sadden to learn of Herman's demise. I first met him when was a young man visiting his uncles at Alabama A&M University. Herman was a young, respectful, and impressionable youth. I had the opportunity to witness him evolve in a young man; very mature and respected by many. Herman was a remarkable young man with a great sense of humor. I will forever cherish my memories of him. I pray that the family will find comfort and peace in his precious memories. It's always difficult to lose someone that was loved by so many. I pray for God's continued Grace, Mercy, and Comfort toward the family.

Herman was one of the many children who grew on on Ashton Ave. He was one of those who bonded with our children as they journeyed through life. He always treated us with the greatest respect even into his adult life. He is already missed but will never will be forgotten. Rest in Peace son.
