“ I am having such a hard time believing this is true, that you are gone. We were just emailing each other about getting together for lunch. You were such a beautiful person with a kind soul, and you always kept me laughing. I am going to miss you and your emails and your beautiful smile. You were taken way to early. R.I.P. Courtney.

“ Courtney is such a positive, upbeat person. It was a privilege to get to know her even a little bit in the workplace. I am sure she is making heaven a brighter place and entertaining all who encounter her. She was taken far too early, however, may she and her family obtain the peace and tranquility that transcends all understanding.
