

Mr. Craig White

September 15, 1936 - March 12, 2020

In Loving Memory Of;

Craig White entered this life September 15, 1936 in Selma, Alabama. He was the youngest of seven sisters and brothers that blessed the union of the late Jessie and Mamie Dembo-White. Craig White accepted Jesus at a young age. As a child, the family moved to Detroit, MI and established a home on the westside. Here, Craig began his education in the Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Northwestern High School. After graduation, Craig furthered his life with marriage to his childhood girlfriend Mary. The union endured over 45 years of love and was enriched with two loving and devoted daughters, Mamie and Henrietta.

Craig was a very dedicated husband and a fantastic father that truly believed in working and helping others, and taught his daughters to be that same way. He worked at the Detroit Laundry, The Packing House at Eastern Market as a boner of all meats, then moved on to work for General Motors as a skilled tradesman. Craig later decided he wanted to further his ability to build and design homes and cars, and became very successful at it.

Craig and Mary later moved their membership from Newlight Baptist Church to St. Phillips Missionary Baptist Church, where they both were very active in church activities. He further went on to help the late Pastor Theron Hodges Sr., as a trustee, singing in the Male Chorus, and building the daycare center. Craig later retired from General Motors and started traveling the world with his wife Mary. They loved going on cruises and trips with their church.
