“ I want to say I found Curtis to be a wonderful man with a contagious smile. I first met Curtis at the 36th district court. I later found out he had a passion for tennis as I would see him at the Y where I had enrolled my daughter for tennis lessons. He always had a kind word for her, encouragement and advice for her endeavors to play tennis. I pray that during this time of sadness remembering the good times you had with him will make you smile and soften your pain.

“ Curtis was a true gentleman who would do anything to help one in need and always insisted that it was his pleasure to do so. He was an excellent attorney whose razor-sharp intelligence was matched by his positive attitude and unwavering commitment to public service. He will be dearly missed as a colleague and a friend, but will remain a source of inspiration and a model of a life well-lived. Our thoughts and prayers are with Barbara, his children, and grandchildren. Brian and Mary Morrow
