“ Cynthia had the most beautiful heart and spirit. Those of us who called her "a sister-friend" knew we had someone loyal, respectful, loving and with integrity in our corner. In our much younger days (during elementary, middle & high school), Cynthia was the one our parents "approved" of. It was ok to go to a party or ball game, as long as we went with Cynthia Mayes!!! That's the kind of person she was...both parent and friend "approved"! So many memories...not enough time. She was nothing short of an angel walking on earth. Now, she'll continue to guide our footsteps from Heaven...because I KNOW that's where she is.

One of the Waverly, Tyler, Buena Vista girls and your Highland Park crew!!!

Love you forever my dear friend!!!!

“ Niecy has always been apart of our Smith Family. I have many memories of her. Our lives have been blessed by having such a beautiful Angel in it. She was my Auntie, friend, and my eldest daughters Godmother. She will be greatly missed.

Sharon, my darling friend. My heart goes out to you and your family. God is so amazing...I have only been looking for Cynthia the last two weeks, trying to see how you were doing. She has been on my mind very heavily. NOW I see why!
