

Mrs. Daisy Edwards

April 15, 1937 - August 3, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Daisy Ann Edwards was born to the union of Bessie Mae Eaton and Albert Page on April 15, 1937, in Braeholm, West Virginia. She was the granddaughter of Anna Kemp and Dawson Eaton.

She was employed in various jobs throughout her early life. The Page family moved from West Virginia to Pittsburgh for a short period of time, and eventually moved to Detroit, Michigan, where Daisy attended the Detroit Public School system

Daisy met and was joined in holy matrimony with Hilrie Edwards Sr. on October 13, 1954. Their marriage continued for over 69 years and was of love, respect, commitment and devotion. To this union four children were born, Robin, Gregory, Hilrie Jr., and Kelley. Once children were born, she became a homemaker.

She loved to travel by car, enjoying the scenery and sites of various cities. She mostly traveled with her family to see her brothers, sisters and the many nieces and nephews in various states. She enjoyed gardening and her many plants within the house and backyard garden. She was an expert seamstress and created many clothes that she wore on various occasions. In addition to sewing, she had a passion for decorating her home, displaying her many artistic talents.

She departed this life peacefully on August 3, 2024. She is preceded in death by her four brothers; Leon, Archie, Donald and Albert, and five sisters; Mary, Doris, Audra, Bessie and Alberta.

She leaves to cherish her memory, husband Hilrie Sr., daughter Robin, sons Gregory (Vanessa), Hilrie Jr. (Tanya), and Kelley; grandchildren; Michael, Renauld (Kenesha), Christopher, Robert, Gabrielle, Allision, brother Richard and sister Merry Forrest, and numerous nieces and nephews and special friends.
