

Mrs. Daisy Mae Ward

March 14, 1925 - January 15, 2014

The Journey:

In the birthplace of Sturgis, Mississippi March 14, 1925, Andy and Arnaz Liningham was blessed with their firstborn, Daisy Mae (Liningham) Ward. She was educated in the Mississippi School System and Daisy accepted Christ at an early age at Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Daisy met Mr. Otto B. Ward who indefinitely became the love of her life. They were united in holy matrimony on July 14, 1947. To this union five children were born. Thelma, Andy, Paulette and Caesar. They relocated their family to Detroit, Michigan in search of a better life where the youngest was born, Towanda.

Daisy joined First Baptist Church Southwest under Pastor Rev. Nathaniel Jackson, currently under the pastoral leadership of Rev. Garrund Woolridge Sr. She was a faithful member for over 56 years where she served on the Usher Board No. 2. A committed servant within her community of Delray, Daisy was a member of the Order of Eastern Star Chapter No. 73 PHA of Starksville, Mississippi.

Daisy's first job was at a well-known restaurant where she worked to fund schooling in cosmetology. After successfully completing school, she worked at Broadstreet Medical as a chef, while starting her career as a professional cosmetologist.

Daisy started her business in the basement of her home. God blessed her to purchase her first building on Grand River at Wyoming which served as her grand opening of Ward's Beauty Salon. She retired after working 30 plus years to tend to the intricate needs of her husband who fell ill.

Daisy will always be remembered for her fashionable sense of style and vast hat collection. Her family often said jokingly, "She can put on a baseball cap and make it look good!" Her favorite pastime was sewing, crossword puzzles, creating new dishes for her family and friends, daytime soap operas and reading the Holy Bible.

She departed this life January 15, 2014.

“ My sincere condolences are extended to the family of Mrs. Ward. Mrs. Ward will always be remembered as a beautiful caring person who my family highly respected. She did my mothers, me and my sisters hair for years. I remember her saying "hold your ear gal before I burn ya" I tell you she made our hair look like silk. She will be very missed, but I have hope in the resurrection and Jehovah cannot lie. Jehovah assures us that there will come a time that those in their memorial tomb will hear the voice of his Son Jesus and come out (John 5:28,29). So this is a temporary parting and I look forward to seeing our dear family friend again right here on the earth when she is called to awaken from her deep sleep. Love
