“ My father only had one sister and she only had one son. I've always tried to stay in touch with them but of course life always gets in the way. I am so sorry that she has to bury her only child because no one should have to bury a child.

“ I met Damani about 7 years ago at an open mic event. The poetry lover in me fell in love with Kash's poetry. Many called him by his stage name, Kash. I found myself going on trips of laughter, trips of sadness, anger and trips out of this world, all via Damani's words. I visited him a few years back, in the hospital and that's when I met the gentle giant . I believe from God we come and to God we must return. My deepest felt sympathy goes out to first his number one fan and best friend, his mother Ms. Margaree Marlin. I'm praying for her that peace which surpasses all understanding and all those who loved and enjoyed Damani.
