“ I've become close to his son Damon and the greatest part about knowing his son is knowing he got his personality from his dad. When I met Damon Sr he was very warming and kept a smile the entire event. To the family you are in my prayers and the best thing about a transition is he will continue to look over you and the memories you can hold dear to your ❤️

“ We were his nurses after his surgery. If he wasn't eating he was walking around doing stuff he wasn't suppose to. Love you Uncle Damon
