

Mr. Damon DeJuan Lee

December 20, 1984 - June 16, 2018

His Journey:

Damon Dejuan Lee was born on December 20, 1984 in Detroit, MI. He was the second of two children born to John Lee and Camille Simmons.

Damon attended Detroit Public Schools. He was very much liked as a student by all his teachers and his peers. He later went on to develop a passion for the world of culinary arts. Many of his family members fell in love with the way he whipped up a delicious "sloppy joe" meal.

Many people considered Damon to have an "old soul." He enjoyed listening to a variety of music eras like his mom. In his spare time he enjoyed defending his title in Mortal Kombat and Street Fighter. Damon was known for his free spirit and joking attitude. He often gave family and friends funny nicknames. Damon was always interested in how something worked. He would take apart broken electrical devices and fix them. Damon was employed at McDonald's in Brunswick, Georgia where he was loved by his co-workers and customers.

Damon was surrounded by family and friends who adored him. Damon made his transition home on June 15, 2018.
