

Mr. Daniel L. Dugan Jr.

March 20, 1971 - December 3, 2014

Celebrating The Life Off Daniel L. Dugan, Jr.

Daniel (Danny) was born in Detroit, Michigan on March 20, 1971 to Daniel Louis Dugan and Carrie Louise Dugan. He graduated from Oak Park High School and attended Fisk University, as well as, Alabama State University. Danny served in the United States Navy as a Petty Officer third class. He earned an honorable discharge on October 30, 2000. He excelled in his accomplishments in the medical field during his term in the Navy. He was affectionately called "Doc" by his friends and family.

Danny accepted Christ as his personal savior in 2002, at Titus Harvest Dome Spectrum Church in Florida. He was a unique person in every way, handsome, smart and accomplished in his own right. He traveled the world while in the Navy. Danny was proud of his service to his country.

Daniel Louis Dugan, Jr., 43 of Houston, Texas, passed away on December 3, 2014 peacefully in his sleep.

“ To my friend Dan. I miss you. I wish you called my more to get your frustrations off of your chest. I would have listened because that's what friends do. I'll take care of Zion down here while you watch from above. May God rest your soul. We'll catch up one day. I love you.

Your old droog,
Ezra
