

Mr. Daniel Mark Jones

April 24, 1985 - December 4, 2015

The Life and Legacy of Daniel Mark Jones:

Daniel Mark Jones was born on April 24, 1985 in Detroit, Michigan. He received his formal education as a student at Henry Ford Community College studying to be a Physical Therapy Assistant. At the age of 19, he became a Massage Therapist, he loved to heal people's body. In 2006, he became a Rehabilitation Technician. Lastly, Dan had careers in Nursing Assistance and Security Officer.

Daniel and Tomikia met at the tender age of 17 and it was love at first sight. Dan and T, as he affectionately called her, wed in a beautiful Jamaican ceremony in 2009. The dynamic duo traveled the world for years before their duo turned into a trio. December 21, 2011, Dan became a father to a beautiful son, Donivan Daniel. Since the day he was born, Dan and Doni were inseparable. Three lovely years later, the family is complete with a sweet baby girl, Danica Josette. Daniel was a committed husband and father. He treasured his family and loved them with his whole heart. He was most content when he was spending quality time with his family.

Dan had a smile and a voice that could light up a room. Everyone that Daniel came in contact with complimented his contagious personality. He gave great advice, a warm heart and he was a compassionate funny guy. He had such a way with people that just left a lasting impression. His jokes that he told would have a room of people in tears with laughter. He told stories in such a way that had you believing that you were right there. Dan never took for granted the times that he could spend with people as he would fondly say “Yall my real people.” The time that he spent on earth was filled with activities with friends, bringing people together, and providing, supporting and loving on his family and close friends.

Dan loved the Lord and knew that he was real. He often testified about how good God was to him and his family. Over the course of a few weeks his relationship grew so intimate and personal with the Lord. He was thankful for his saving grace.

Daniel transitioned from earth to heaven on December 4, 2015.

Cemetery Details

Detroit Memorial Park West

25200 Plymouth Road
Redford Twp., MI 48239

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Daniel Mark Jones

---

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ I met Tomikia though work at St. Mary's Hospital. Daniel would pick her up after work occasionally, which is how I first met him. It was obvious these two people were meant for each other: so clearly in love. It's shocking & tragic that Daniel has died. I pray that Daniel's love for Tomikia and the children remain with them, always.

---

Anita Baran-Caeti - December 10, 2015 at 10:04 PM