“ Pondexter Family~

I did not know Dea. Pondexter well, however, I remember seeing him at CCF and he truly seemed like a laid-back guy w/loved his church; as he was always serving. Pastor Washington told me what a remarkable and godly man Dea. Pondexter was and how he loved his family so. I pray that God will strengthen your family during this time. God is The Great Comforter and a Wonderful Counselor so I encourage you to look to the hills from which cometh your help. The good news is that He knows best and we don't have to operate in our own strength because we serve a Mighty God!!! God bless you all!

Sincerely,

*Mesha Young
(Pastor Washington's fiancée)*

“ Dear Joyce & the whole Pondexter family,

May I express my deepest condolence to each of you for the loss of "our" dearest loved one (daddy Daniel, is what I would always call him). It seems no matter how many times we come to this juncture in life, the pain we experience is as real as the one before.

Yet we praise God for His all sufficient grace in giving us the victory no matter what we may experience and, at the most crucial times of our lives per His word (I Cor. 15:57).

I, along with you, take solace in knowing we will see him again!

Much Love!

“ To the family of Deacon Poindexter (as I knew him); We all grew up in church together and I have such fond memories of the Poindexters. You all were very sweet and welcoming of me into your family as a child and I shall never forget that. I wish I could attend the service and see all of you but my prayers are definitely with you all at this time. Deacon Poindexter was a wonderful man and example of how a man of God should lead a family. Be blessed and much love 💕 to you all! ~ Cheryl Davis Burton
