

Ms. Danyell Garrett

March 25, 1975 - October 24, 2020

In Loving Memory Of:

Danyell Lenise Garrett was born on March 25, 1975 in Detroit, Michigan to John Henry Garrett Jr. and Shirley Jean Garrett (Harold).

Danyell was given the nickname of Spanky at an early age, Dei later in life and most famously Soltreu. She was affectionately known to her nephew as Auntie.

Danyell accepted Christ at an early age and held onto her higher power.

Danyell attended the Detroit Private School system. Danyell graduated from St. Martin De Porres High School in 1993. After high school, Danyell pursued many interests which included earning an associate degree, attended Clark Atlanta as well as attending Everest Institute receiving a diploma in Medical Administration in 2010.

Danyell was employed with Chrysler for (10+) years until 2007 when she decided to take the buyout to pursue her lifelong dream of writing fulltime, becoming a published poet and author.

Danyell's great love for writing and poetry birthed 7 books of which she penned and published as Soltreu/Soltreu SolPar, Soltreu Garrett. "Soltreu: "out of my soul, comes truth."
