Her Story:

Darlene Donna Petty Coursey was born on November 16-17, 1947 in Ferndale, Michigan. She was the fifth child of nine siblings born to John B. Petty and Minister Frances Helen Petty. She was an active member of Zion Apostolic Church at a young age and then a member of Crossroads Victory Full Gospel Int'l (CVFGIC). Darlene was a successful wife, mother, grandmother, and a retired Veterans' Administration Hospital Registered Nurse [R.N.]. She graduated from Grant School in Ferndale and when the family moved to Detroit, she graduated from Durfee Middle School and Central High School. She worked at Crowley in Detroit, Michigan in Retail Sales in the China Department for several years. She furthered her education and graduated from JTPA School of Practical Nursing, becoming a State Licensed Practical Nurse [LPN]. She worked as a LPN employed at Veterans' Administration Hospital; and continued her education at Wayne County Community College District (WCCCD) while working at the VA Hospital.

She earned her Associate of Science Degree (A.A.S) from WCCCD as a Registered Nurse, and continued taking multiple courses at Washtenaw Community College and Wayne State University. She continued to work as a RN at John Dingell Veterans' Administration Hospital for over 25 years. After retirement from the VA, she worked as a RN for a short time at the State of Michigan Hospice Hospital encouraging and providing much comfort to many individuals during their last stages of life. Darlene loved working around her beautiful yard and was always genuine, loving, encouraging, and empowering family members and many others.

She was certified as a "Medical Missionary" at Crossroads Victory (CVFGIC) and a consultant for the Women's Justice Center (a domestic violence agency). Her dedicated husband, Earl Coursey [deceased] was a Construction Entrepreneur who loved and honored Darlene, ironing her uniforms and preparing her meals, always putting her on a pedestal.
