

Ms. Darlene Howard

October 13, 1954 - November 20, 2024

To All That Came Thank You.

Here's a little History first of the year 1954.

In 1954, the Supreme Court Rules in Brown vs. Board of Education. RCA introduces the first color tv, Harvard doctors perform the first successful kidney transplant. James McLamore and David Edgerton founded Burger King. Dwight Eisenhower was President of the United States and Richard Nixon was Vice President. First Class Stamp was 3¢, new car $1,700.00 and eggs 26¢ per dozen.

Darlene Nicholson Pogue-Howard was born on October 13, 1954 to the union of Mary and Roy Lee Pogue on the east side of Detroit and the first in her family to be born up north. Baptized at eleven years old at Greater Future Baptist Church. Attended Detroit Public Schools, graduated from Mumford High School. Married Mr. Philip Howard Senior, in, 1972, and from that union her only child Marguerite Howard Motley-Bey was born.

Darlene loved pets and she loved training dogs. She had a passion for knowledge and loved spending time with her grandchildren. She has an associates of science degree from WCCCD. She was a General Motors employee, an A&B welder, cashier, nurses aide, sales and secretary.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory a daughter Marguerite Howard Motley-Bey; two grandsons Diontea T. Wells and Philip Howard III Motley-Bey; three brothers Michael Pogue (Audrey), Dennis Pogue (Rose), Rodney Pogue who has preceded her in death; sister-in-law Jai Marie Pogue; granddaughter-in-law Desirae Wilson and The Wilson Family including the House of Boys and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

“ My cousin Darlene... Words escape me. We were only 15 months apart in age. I have so many fond memories of us growing up and making the journey through life together. We both had one child, daughters the same age. You nicknamed me “Jody”. Interestingly, only you and one other person ever called me that. I hear you on the other end of the phone, “Hey Jody, this is your cousin Darlene”, announcing yourself as if I didn’t know your voice or have caller ID. It seems you kept in touch with everyone you ever met and would call to share news about loved ones and people from our childhoods that I didn’t even remember. Your hearty laugh made me smile. You usually had a grandchild or great-grandchild in tow wherever you went. The attentiveness you showed to our 94 year old aunt was admirable. God knew what he was doing when he allowed her to transition a few months before you. If anybody asks me where you’re going, I’ll loudly proclaim, she’s “going up yonder to be with the Lord”. (Lyrics contained in your favorite gospel song.) I see you praising Him and singing that song as you enter the pearly gates, dancing and twirling on your toes. Rest in power my dear cousin. God has you now and you are healed, free....!
Love, Jody (aka Joanne)
