

Mr. Darlyn Demetrious Jackson

January 19, 1973 - November 30, 2014

Celebrating The Life Of Darlyn Demetrious Jackson: and Mary Jackson. Daryl made his transition into the arms of his Lord Jesus Christ at the age of 41 on Sunday, November 30, 2014. He was the oldest of two children.

Daryl attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Cooley High School in 1992. He was employed with American Axle where he retired on disability in 1998.

Daryl was affectionately known as "Peanut" and "Uncle Bill" to his friends. He loved rebuilding engines and racing cars.

Daryl loved people and had many friends. Despite his illness, he always had a smile on his face, a kind word and a houseful of love and laughter.

Daryl loved to eat. One of his favorite desserts was his Grandma Lee's caramel cake!

Daryl had the privilege of living his life his own way. Independence was the way he wanted it; he wanted to remain on his own, in his own home, with his own things, which his parents fully supported. Despite their complaints, surely Daryl's friends and caregivers will miss him playing his television and radio loud all night.
