“ Mr. Daniels is what I had known to call him by. I want to first begin by giving my deepest sympathy to his family. He was my step team coach and mentor beginning from high school on through college. It hurts to hear of this news on his passing. The guidance and mentorship he provided me has helped me to encourage and teach others that want to be successful too, not to mention I’m always running around making sure I am financially straight, always thinking ahead toward my future from the now; I’m glad to say he was sure to teach me that. Just thinking about how he impacted my life, when it comes to his family I cant image how great he was there, words most likely couldn’t even describe it. You have my condolences and hugs. But one thing we do know, his spirit will live on for all the days to come because of all the good he had done on this earth for soooo many in so many ways. I see now what it means when it’s said, “Job well done my GOOD and FAITHFUL SERVANT”. Mr. Daniels, may your spirit live on and your soul be in perfect peace.
