“ Thanks for being a blessing to the family and providing your support and prayers over the years. For me personally, you always showed me an abundance of love and I will always appreciate you for that. We always had a good times and a blast of laughs whenever we were together. When we were little boys, I remember you came to Alabama to visit for the summer and how you were so “GQ”.....always dressed with style and always smooth. You were a hit to all that met you! Everyone admired your Detroit style and the way you danced.....the girls especially admired you cuz. I was proud you were my cousin! :) Sadly, when the summer was over and you had to go back to Detroit, I remember us both crying because you had to go home. Well, we keep that special connection over the years and you’ve giving me nothing but encouragement and positivity throughout my life. And now that you’ve gone to your heavenly home, we all will miss you but we will never forget all the good times, laughter, love, thoughts and prayers you given us over the years. Much love cuz.....Rest in heavenly peace!!!!

Q Wilcox*
