

Mr. Daryl Tyrone (Boss) Hunter

June 21, 1957 - November 13, 2019

In Loving Memory Of;

Daryl T. Hunter was born on June 21, 1957 in Eloise, MI to Charles William Hunter and Florence Mae Hunter.

Daryl accepted Christ at an early age. He attended Mission Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Searcy.

Daryl attended the Westwood Public School System. While Daryl was in high school, he attended R.O.T.C, Woodshop and Auto Mechanics. Daryl graduated from Robichaud High School in 1975, then entered the U.S. Army on active duty from 1976 to 1980. Once he was honorably discharged from the Army, he attended Highland Park Community College where he obtained an Associates Degree in Engineering. Daryl also served in the Army Reserves for 26 years, where he was an Infantry Nurse. Daryl then retired from the Army Reserves in 2006.

Daryl was employed with Magna International for 19 years as an Engineer and VP of Seating and Design.

Daryl loved to work with his hands. He was a great carpenter, painter and mechanic. He also loved to talk and lecture everyone on anything from bubble gum to changing oil. He enjoyed being around family and friends, and was known as the family KNOW IT ALL!!! He would also inform his nephews and nieces to, "Get their own tools." Then would say, "They would only be guys with tools and wouldn't know how to use them." He was also a wonderful cook, never had an enemy and never met a stranger. He was a great man.

Daryl departed this life on November 13, 2019. He was preceded in death by: his father, Charles William Hunter; mother, Florence Mae Hunter; and twin brother, Teryl J Hunter.
