“ To the bereaved family:

The Pastor, Officers, and entire membership of Antioch Missionary Baptist Church, Louisville, Mississippi offer you our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your beloved

Daylen Head

During this difficult time, we commend you to the capable hands of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. God's word reminds us that He is a very present help.

The tie that binds your loved one and us together blesses us. We celebrate with you the life of Daylen. Know that death is not an end, but a transition to a place free of pain and suffering. The word of God reminds us in 2nd Timothy 4:7-8, "I have fought a good fight, finished the course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing."

As you walk through this valley of the shadow of death, find comfort in the sweet memories of your loved one. Know that God has loaned him to you for a few years and has now afforded him a home on high. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

WHEREAS, we believe the words of Jesus in John 14 that encourages us to " Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we embrace the family with our deepest expression of sympathy.

Sincerely,

Antioch Baptist Church Louisville, Mississippi

Rev. James L. Headd, Pastor

“ Sympathy is extended in your time of grief for the loss of Daylen. He was loved by all who knew him.

Remember that your lost is shared by many friends who care, and that you are in our hearts, our thoughts, and our every prayer. May you find the courage to face tomorrow in the love that surrounds you today. May the love of friends and family be a source of comfort to you at this time.

“Death leaves a heartache that no one can heal, Love leaves memories that no one can steal.”
