“ A faithful servant of God once prayed: “Do put my tears in your skin bottle. Are they not in your book?” This trusting servant knew that God was aware not only of his suffering, but also of the emotional impact it had on him. Yes, God was aware of this man's pain and remembered (as though written down in a book) what he went through emotionally that caused his tears. (Psalm 56:8) Our Loving God has not changed! (Malachi 3:6) He is aware of the many traumatic experiences that mankind has endured over the millenniums of time, especially death. He knows the devastating effects that death can have on our very being. That's why it was never his purpose that death should 'rule as king' among mankind. (Romans 5:17) He promises us in His Word that death will soon be destroyed (2 Corinthians 15:26). Our loved ones who have died, he will restore to us by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29) Not only that, but all mourning, outcry and pain will be gone and he will wipe away all tears from our eyes (Rev. 21:4) Mankind will then be able to live out the length of his days in perfect peace, health and happiness, the way God originally intended: 'even life forever more'. (Psalm 133:3, Psalm 37:29). May your hearts find comfort in God's Word, for it will surely come to pass (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To My Family,

"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory no one can steal".....

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from GOD, an eternal house in Heaven, not built by human hands. Praise God, Praise God!!!! May He continue to comfort, strengthen, and keep you in His care.

Love you much.

“ He who has gone, so we but cherish his memory, abides with us, more potent, and, more present than the living man. Hold tight to memories for comfort. Lean on your friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about.##imported-begin##Mark & Debra Robinson##imported-end##
