“ Aunt Jessie, Lenny, Sherry and Meech...
God does not give us more than we can handle and although we can question ourselves we cannot question his plan. Uncle Chuck is in a better place now, with no pain and no suffering. He spent his time here being loved by all of you and and all of us and to me, having the love of family is one the greatest gifts of all. Be strong, be together and keep all the fond memories that make you laugh and smile when you think about Uncle Chuck. I know I will. I love you all....Monnie###imported-begin###Monica Y. “ To Cheronda and family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you during this hour of bereavement. May God strengthen and keep you and your family. Remember that God never makes a mistake; to be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD. Just think that Deacon Green is no longer suffering but he's forever rejoicing on the other side.###imported-begin###Marsha Pugh###imported-end###

“ *My dearest Green Family,
I am saddened by your (our) lost. I know that Deacon Green was special to all of you. But I am encouraged in knowing that absent from the body is present with the Lord. It's what we are all working toward. I am praying for the family during these difficult times and please know that I am available to you. Time is such a powerful mechanism,remember that weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. All things work together for our good. I love you all....stay encouraged.

“ Greetings Cheronda and Family,

It is with great conviction that I say, "God makes no mistakes and when He knows that one has had enough time on earth, He relieves them of their earthly shell, so that they may seek their ultimate destiny." Perhaps one of the greatest cliché's of all time is one of the truest, "The pain does get better with time". God will keep you. I sent a special prayer to the entire family during church this morning.

Love always,

He commanded the Sun to decrease it's smile. He ordered the East wind to be still.
