“ To Rev. Nakita and family,
My prayers are with you as you go through this journey. My fondest memory of Deborah is when she convinced me to be in one of her plays on the daughters of Zelophehad. Not being an actress I was very nervous but she directed in a way that made it fun and enjoyable. Deborah was very creative.
May the Peace of God continue to comfort you.

“ I am so blessed, glad, and Grateful to have seen, hugged, learned from, and Laughed with Mama Shu during my last visit to Detroit. Always a Word. Always a welcome. She made years apart feel like minutes. Sending so much love to this family, from myself and the Joneses of Boston and Nashville. Mama Shu will be loved, and her mighty spirit never ever forgotten.
