

Ms. Deborah Sandra Taylor

September 13, 1947 - June 10, 2014

Deborah Sandra Taylor was the youngest daughter of four children born on September 13, 1947 to the union of Maude and Charles Taylor, who preceded her in death. Her three brothers, Charles, Robert, Kenneth and a great-nephew Charles whom has also gone on home to glory.

Deborah was born in Detroit, Michigan and attended the public schools and graduated from Madonna University in Detroit, Michigan.

Deborah received Christ into her life at an early age. She attended church faithfully which included Burnette Baptist Church, Hartford Memorial Church and Unity Baptist Church. She served in the mission, as a Sunday school teacher, and helped in any way she could to provide services to others.

Deborah was employed with Detroit Receiving Hospital as a physical therapist for 15 years. Deborah was also employed with the Detroit Public Schools in which she was a school teacher.

Deborah was also known as Deb. She started doing storytelling while she was employed. She would do her storytelling when and wherever she was asked to do so. With her lovely, friendly and smiley personality, she became well known. She even appeared on television, Channel 56 and was on the radio.

Deborah was definitely a people person and she loved to talk and smile at the same time. Deborah was always smiling even through her last days. She was cheerful and pleasant. She never complained about anyone or anything. She was a positive person on this earth and will be truly, truly missed. She is and always will be a wonderful angel.
