

Mr. Delbert Anzel Culver

February 11, 1962 - December 29, 2016

Celebrating The Life of Albert Anzel Culver:

Delbert Anzel Culver was born on February 11, 1962 to the late Vernon Culver Jr. and Mattie Culver. Delbert was affectionately also know as Culver, DB, Baby Boy and James Earl.

He attended the Detroit Public School System. Delbert, soon began working as a salesman at Arlan Tile where he was employed for over 20 years.

Delbert departed this life on December 29, 2016.

To know Delbert was to love him especially when he showed you his “rap” and “master ballroom dancing” skills and a comedian that kept everybody laughing. Delbert loved spending time with family and friends, sweets, sugar and very odd amounts of change. He was a protector of those he loved and you knew when he said “Aye dig this here” it was a problem that was about to be handled.

“ Losing a loved one can be a difficult thing to go through. A scripture at Psalms chapter 55 verse 22 can help to give comfort in our time of need, it said throw your burden on God and he will sustain you, never will he allow his righteous one to fall.

“ My condolences to the family. No one is ever totally prepared for the death of a loved one. When death strikes the pain can seem unbearable. May you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you.-Psalms 55:22

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort embrace you with peace and hope now and in the days to come when even death itself will be no more. Rev 21:4

“ I send my condolences to the Culver Family. Remember the words of Job. He believed in a resurrection, meaning that a person can be brought back to life after dying. And we could have the chance to see our loved ones again. Please find comfort in these words and may God be with you at this time.

Job 14:14 "If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service, Until my relief comes."
