In Loving Memory Of;

Delores Ann Jackson-Stallworth was born on September 25, 1953 in Detroit, MI to the late Dessie Lee Rucker and the late Daviel Henderson.

Delores accepted Christ at an early age. In her early years, she became a member of El Bethel Baptist Church where she served as a code leader on the Usher Ministry. Delores loved the Lord.

Delores attended the Detroit Public Schools system and graduated from David Mackenzie High School on January 28, 1972, a few years after she gave birth to a beautiful boy, her son, Dave Johnson, III. That made her determined to further her education in becoming a devoted nurse which she stayed employed for DMC Sinai-Grace for over 40 years until her recent retirement. Delores met the late Willie Stallworth and joined him in holy matrimony on February 14, 1995. Delores' favorite thing to do was travel with her friends.
