“ Mrs. Delores Brooks Winfrey - Miller

“ Dear Kelly and Lisa, and family you have my deepest condolences. Delores Winfrey Miller was a hard working dedicated nurse who willfully gave of herself. As a no- nonsense person who laid down the law when patients tried to deviate from what was best for them, she went over and beyond for them often looking out for the least, the lost and the looked over. No matter what the need, if she had it and you asked for it; it was yours and she never thought twice about it. Although her exterior would often look tough, she had a soft and comical interior outlook that few people knew. As someone who enjoyed helping others, she never took the easy way out of any situation. I feel very fortunate to have known her and was her last immediate supervisor. Well loved by the Hutzel Hospital nursing staff, she will be sorely missed.
