

Mrs. Deloris Dell Flowers

April 28, 1939 - February 28, 2019

Her Story:

Deloris Dell Flowers was born on April 28, 1939 in Huntsville, Alabama to Carrie Robinson and James Starnes (Jones Broadway). Deloris was the youngest of three sisters in which Catharine Washington and Doris Griffin preceded her in death.

Deloris moved to Detroit at a very young age. She met and married Frederic Flowers (who preceded her in death) and from their union, three children were born, Frederic Douglas Flowers, Jr. (who preceded her in death), Freda Chessin (her husband Roger), and Carletta Flowers. Deloris was a kind and loving mother and added to her family a son, Marcus Hollien (wife Nyeika). Also, left to cherish her memory: two grandchildren Robin and Kris Chessin and her closest Sister and Friend Dorothy Williams and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Deloris accepted and love Christ. Deloris lived to love and always shared her wisdom, even if the interaction was brief, she touched many hearts and lives. Deloris was loved by many and will be missed. She was stern and kind always willing to help others.

Deloris received her high school diploma at Commerce High School in Detroit. She obtained her certification in computer programming from Control Data Institute and college education from Detroit College of Business. Deloris retired from Wayne County in 2004.

Deloris made her transition February 28, 2019.
