“ It's so very hard to grapple with a loss that's so great and so dear. It's so difficult to understand why it happens to someone so young and so innocent. No one knows why, but it happens. The loss of DeMario is so overwhelmingly painful that the only comfort now is the presence of a loving family and friends.

To Ayanna & the Lowerys, know that DeMario will remain in your hearts and minds until you are with him, again. With the GOD, prayer and meditation, the pain will come easier to bear over time. So cry for a while, and grieve for your loss. Then, know that DeMario's soul is resting.

It is always comforting to think about DeMario now, in the arms of his Grandfather, John and his great grands. Thanks to the Almighty!

With my deepest love, Your Godmother, Pat

P.S. I wanted & had planned to be there, but I'm in quarantine for 5 more days. Will see you afterwards, Ayanna!

“ I’m still blown away that I literally just ran into Moe a month ago... I was walking out of my home to my car & He called out my name in excitement, just as surprised to see me as I was to see him. We stayed in contact through social media but I haven’t seen him in person before that in so many years... We hugged & chatted; he said he was visiting family & I told him that’s where I lived. He asked about my sister Lex ( like he always did lol), always asking me to put in a good word, which I always thought was funny & cute... He sent me a message later on that night saying he was coming back to chill with us & he did... I wasn’t there unfortunately but he did get to see Lexus, thankfully 😊 My memories of Moe have & will always be fond. He was always in good spirits & just a sweet guy to me overall... Even as a boy when I met him, his energy was always the same... lively & charismatic. I’ll forever remember him that way. It breaks my heart to see that he has left this earth so soon, too soon. I’m praying for so much healing, covering & love for his Mom, Yana & siblings, Asia Shana Tre & Duke... I’m so sorry for your lost 😞 May God give you strength...
