

Mr. Demetrius Charles Edward Thomas

April 4, 1976 - April 12, 2024

Demetrius Edward-Charles Thomas was born on April 4, 1976 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital to George Thomas, Jr. and LaTanya Thomas.

For now, he leaves his father and mother, his grandmother Elaine Barrett, Olivia's mother Monique, his children Demetrius Elijah Christian Thomas, Dakari Thomas, Olivia Grace Thomas, along with his granddaughter Ja'Miyah Thomas.

The love of his aunts Frances Mchaney, Joyce O'Neal, Leah Thomas, Heather Odom, Karen Thomas; with a host of cousins, best friends, as well as acquaintances.

Demetrius could always see your point of view. He was a private person like you never saw before. Wow! Real soldier, warrior with leadership qualities. His name can be found in the Bible several places, one that comes to mind is at 3rd John 12. So be it!

Furthermore, Demetrius was baptized at around 9/10 with evidence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. This was a sanctified church. Yes indeed, he was sunshine to all he encountered. You will be missed precious soul.

Demetrius was married twice to Tameka and Tracey. He attended Central High School which he quit and moved on to get his GED. Through it all, he kept a job doing well with all.

His last employer was The Oakman Group where he obtained his forklift operator's license, something he always wanted with high expectations. Let's just say he would say "make it make sense. I got you!" Let's read what the Lord has to say what we are to do in Deuteronomy 6:49
