

Mrs. Denise Patricia Harris

February 5, 1956 - July 21, 2018

Going Home Celebration For Denise Patricia Harris:

Denise Patricia Harris was born on February 5, 1956 in Detroit, Michigan to Mrs. Gladner Patsy Bell and Charleston Bell.

Denise accepted Christ at an early age at Macedonia Baptist Church. Denise attended Detroit Kettering High School and was among one of the first women to join R.O.T.C. Denise graduated from Kettering High School in 1973. After high school, Denise attended Detroit College of Business and Henry Ford Community College.

Denise was employed with Michcon for 20 years as an administrative assistant and then with P.S.C.U Financial as a call center rep until she became ill in May of 2016.

She was joined in holy matrimony with Jerome Harris for 28 years. To this union, one child was born. Denise loved playing tennis, watching scary movies, volunteering services for Accounting Aid Society, Hospice of Metropolitan Detroit as a secretary, United Congregational Christian Church as a secretary for feeding 3000 homeless people in Detroit Cass Corridor, and secretary for HMD Multimedia Studio.

Denise departed this life on July 21, 2018.

“ Mrs. Denise was such a sweetheart when I first met her at my job. Mrs. Harris gave such great words of wisdom and she always told me to keep God first, and to not let anyone steal my joy. Mrs. Harris was a joy to work with and her beautiful spirit will always be in our presence. My prayers are always with her family.
