“ To The Brown Family, May God be the strength and comfort that your family needs right now. The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love. There is comfort in friendship, hope in prayer and peace in love. Terry and Pat, I know that words cannot describe the loss your family is feeling and the hole that is left behind in Denver's transitioning however I do know that to lose your brother Denver is hard, but know that the loving memories you shared will forever be etched in your hearts to comfort you. Sharing in your sorrow with love and friendship. You and your family are in my prayers. Viola Smith
