“ Derrick, I am so very sorry for the loss of your father. I am sure he was a good father because he sure raised a great, caring, kind and wonderful son. I am most certain he was always proud of his son named after him.

“ Derrick was truly a great person. Always in a good mood and spirit, very proud of his kids and what they have accomplished in life, loved his wife unconditionally. If you were his friend, you were always welcome to his home and when you went there, you were not leaving his home on an empty stomach. Derrick loved to entertain all his friends. Derrick not only were we coworkers with the Detroit police reserve program, it has been an honor and pleasure to be your friend. you will truly be missed in body but you will always be here in spirit with me and the rest of your DPD family from the sixth precinct. Andre, you, your sister and the rest of your family are in my prayers. P.O. Jeff Johnson.
