

Mr. Devin Lindsey

May 15, 1990 - January 11, 2019

His Story:

Devin Wendell Lindsey was born on May 15, 1990 in Detroit, Michigan to Lanya (Lindsey) Lee and raised by Willie Evans and Dennis Lee. He accepted Christ at an early age.

Devin attended Detroit Public Schools throughout his adolescent years, playing little league football eventually graduating from Thurston High School in Redford, Michigan where he played football; as a defensive end. Devin had a love for media and film production. This love for film inspired him to attend Specs Howard School of Media Arts in 2012. In September of 2013, Devin graduated with a degree in Digital Media. In 2018, Devin was accepted into an electrical apprentice program and worked as a freelance electrician.

Devin was an entrepreneur at heart with an undeniable desire to have his own business. Eventually he and a couple of friends (Kali and Austin) started Young Driven Entrepreneurs (YDE). Videography allowed him the opportunity to express his talents in many facets... from comedy, music videos and documentaries. When he wasn't working on his passion he was spending time with his five adorable children, friends and family. Through all the ups and downs, tears and laughter family was most important.

And though he had many loves, the love he had for his children was the greatest of all.

On January 11, 2019, Devin made his transition from this life into eternity.
