“ Hey Mama "D"

It's been a while since we talked but I know that you have always known my heart. We shared so many laughs and I will never forget your smile because it always brought sunlight to any darkness. The time has come for you to take your rest in the Lord and you will be missed. I am going to shed some tears for some time, but after awhile I will rejoice because I know that to be absent from the body....is to present with the Lord!. Take your seat, wear your crown and watch over our souls. Thank you for alwccays "keepin it real!" Three Switching B.....(You, Me and Wanda). Whatcha know bout that! C u later!

From our hearts to God's ears and to your loving spirit. We love you Mama D!!!!!! Marcelle, Alvin, Andreaus and Marcel.

“ This is Sirocco in Los Angeles California my grandmother Diane has decided to go and keep an eye on my mother again to me for as long as I can remember she has always been the true sense of the word family . Weather I'm right or wrong she supported me maybe not with California at first man she had some words for me WOW! But she got used to it and saw that it made me a better person.

The funny thing is with her approval things got a lot better every time she smiled it made me smile. She has always been in my universe she was my world I may not have talk with her every day or seen her much but when we did speak it was like we saw each other yesterday we talked and talked and we both lit up like a Christmas trees I felt like it made both of our days and knowing she was in my world made me feel like I can do anything.

Rather things were bad or things were okay or great she was my constant rock she was my foundation since I was a baby even when I was with my mother I knew my grandmother loved me, cared for me and always wonder where I am and what I was doing in my life . Life was not easy for me growing up there something's that I have seen as a child that I probably shouldn't discuss but let's just say my grandmother was the bravest woman I have ever met I will forever love her and she will be forever in my heart GRANDMOTHER which she was the Grandest of all I love you Grandma.

“ To our niece/cousin, Diane, we are saddened to hear of your passing. So here is a poem until we meet again:

*If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for us,
Place them in Diane's arms and tell her they're from us.*

*Tell her we love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.*

*Because remembering her would be easy,
We could do that every day,
but there's an ache within our hearts
that will never go away.*

*Love,
Uncle Marvin, Mary, Cousin Lewis & Family from California*

“ I first talked to my cousin Diane Sibert January 2013. had been searching for my great grandfather's baby sister's family up north. The only family I knew was cousin Calvin Gray. He gave me Diane's phone number so I called her to invite her to the Boyd family reunion. She was so happy to hear from her grandmothers family from down south. She said her mother Nolin talked about my great grandfather (Lainer) alot; and said how he was her favorite uncle. She was going to get everyone up north to come south for the reunion. She didn't make it due to illness but she was there in spirit. Sometimes when I would call her, she would be playing cards with friends. She would say "Hey cuz let be call you back". Diane, God brought us together so that you could let the Boyd Siblings that have gone on bere us know that their children, grandchildren and greatgrands are finally coming together again.

“ I was saddened to hear of Diane's home going , but knowing that now she is with her mother , grandmother and her aunts and uncle and all of those who have gone on before her gives me some consolation . The Lord does not call any of us home until our work down here on earth is done, we may feel that it is to soon, however God's will must be done . Jesus answered and said unto them, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. (St. John 13:7) Family be encouraged in this time of grief, trust in God and he will strengthen you in this time of sadness. You all are in the Gray families prayers, God Bless You and Keep You .
