In Loving Memory Of

Born in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, Donald “Bud” Reed was the only child born on September 4, 1931 from the union of Otho Leroy Reed and Pearle Trammel Reed. Both preceded him in death.

He graduated from Fifth Avenue High. Served in the Army military branch. Retired from the City of Detroit in 1986.

He loved Jazz. He enjoyed collecting, and reading history. He was not at a loss to share his knowledge. In retirement he volunteered at the community center to share his experiences of life.

Donald married Gloria Wilson in July 1950. From that union Darnell (Thelma), Donald and Gloria (preceded him in death) were born. He married Shirley Ann Bethel in February 1961. She had three daughters Devlin, Denise (preceded him in death) and Janett. From that union Dwayne (Laura) and Kendall (Tracy) were born.

He leaves cherished memories to his family, siblings, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. A host of nieces, nephew, cousins and friends of the family, who loved and respected him dearly.
