“ When you work alongside a person for a number of years, they become “family”. Donna was definitely considered family. We shared stories about what was going on in life and specifically her and I always talked about retirement and how she was looking forward to that time in her life. It seems unfair sometimes that she didn't get to experience that for any appreciable time. My sincere condolences to Chris, who she just talked about endlessly. There is a definite void in our work family now and will always remember her kindness to patients ( even though sometimes they got on her nerves!) but she would never let it show. Watch over Chris and see what he accomplishes in this life due to your upbringing. ❤️

“ Ms. Brown was and is one very strong woman. One I hope to be just as strong as with my time here on earth. I know she's looking down at her loved ones with a smile on her face and finger pointed telling everyone not to cry! May her light continue to shine bright and bring joy to all those who love her💕

“ The Things I remember most about Donna. There was never a time we crossed paths that you weren't, smiling and you always found a reason to be complimentary... especially when I made a dessert for the department, you liked. You were always a gentle spirit, unless someone managed to make you feel uncomfortable. I love you friend, It hurt me deeply to hear of your passing but then I said, Wow! I have another angelic friend in heaven, looking out for me, rest well my Queen, you will never be forgotten. My Condolences to the Family. Karen Ford.
