“ To the family of Donna Lynn Jackson, please accept my sincere condolence. It's hard to find words to console someone who is grieving over the loss of a precious loved one. I have found tremendous comfort from reading God's word the Bible. The Bible speaks of death being an enemy that God never intended mankind to experience. Isaiah 25:8 God promises that in the near future he will actually' swallow up death forever.' May your hearts find peace and comfort in the days ahead, and may you continue to receive comfort from the warm thoughts and prayers that others are sending your way.

“ May our heavenly Father give each of the family comfort and strength to get through each day until the fulfillment of God's Kingdom promises. (Matt. 6:9,10) He will at that time replace all of our tears of pain and sorrow with tears of joy and happiness. (John 5:28,29) My condolences.
