“ To my nephew, Donte' Lamar Hicks, so smart, so funny, so young ... You shall be greatly missed in this life by those who loved you most (...your wife & son, your mother & father, your sister & brothers, your grandparents, your uncles & aunts, etc) . . . words can not begin to express the sentiments of our collective hearts, but we do know that the memory of you shall live on in those collective hearts. The pain is great now, but in time, it will give way to the sweet memories of your wit, humor, and caring spirit. We love you dearly. Uncle Kenny
