

Ms. Doris Mae Evans

April 20, 1956 - August 1, 2015

In Loving Memory Of Doris Mae Evans:

Doris Mae Evans was born on April 20, 1956 in Greensboro, Alabama to loving mother Maggie Evans. She was baptized at Union Grove Baptist Church in Greensboro, Alabama. She was the eighth oldest of eleven children. Doris attended Finney High School in Detroit, Michigan.

Doris was a fun loving person who enjoyed cooking, being with family, and listening to the blues. She worked as an Industrial Worker at Palace Quality Laundry for 21 years and Queen Quality Laundry for five years. If you knew Doris well, you knew she loved the color red...red lipstick, red nail polish, and red clothes.

“ It is with our Deepest Sympathy to the Evans and Gater Family, at this time of sorrow. Know that Doris will always be in your hearts, she is with God now he has called another beautiful Red Rose to his Garden to bloom and wait for you. We will continue to remember you in our Prayers. Love and Respect, JoNell Cobbs Jackson and Family.
