

Mrs. Doris Lucre Henry

August 25, 1936 - June 13, 2015

The Journey, Doris Lucre Henry:

Doris L. Woodruff was born August 25, 1936 to the loving union of childhood sweethearts Frederick and Arresa Woodruff in Tupelo, Mississippi. The family soon after relocated to Detroit, Michigan where Doris confessed her faith at an early age, joining Aijalon Baptist Church under the direction of Reverend James Williams. Both parents preceded her in death and three siblings.

Doris completed her education in Detroit Public Schools graduating from Northwestern High School. She also attended Wayne State University. In March of 1953 Doris married her sweetheart Cecil C. Henry and to this union four sons were born Rick, Al, Fred and Cecil. She was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother and auntie.

Doris worked as an Education Aide in Detroit Public Schools for over thirty years, retiring twice she also worked in management for Detroit Postal Services. Through the years her favorite pastime was traveling, shopping and gardening. Her garden was really something to see and the envy of the all the neighbors.
