

Mrs. Dorothy Louise Brooks-Brown

January 17, 1931 - July 6, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Dorothy Louise Brooks-Brown:

Dorothy Louise Brooks-Brown was born on January 17, 1931 to the late Allee Foster and Olivia Foster in Spartanburgh, South Carolina. She attended and graduated from Fifth Avenue High School in Pittsburgh, PA.

Dorothy was united in holy matrimony to the late George Finly Brooks. In their unity they had three children Jacqueline Michelle Brooks-Barnett, the late Eric Olando Brooks and Gail Denise Brooks.

She was preceded in death by: sister, Naomi Brown; brother, Allee Jr. Foster "June"; and granddaughter, Reintera Brooks.

In 1980 Dorothy was united with William Brown (Sonny) until his sudden death. They enjoyed being involved with the Barton-McFarland Neighborhood Association.

Dorothy had a love for birds and also for ceramic art, which she became a certified ceramics art teacher through the Duncan Ceramics Educational Program.

Dorothy worked for Ford Rawsonville Plant, which she retired from in the late 90s.
