

Mrs. Dorothy May Dorsey

January 22, 1928 - September 1, 2014

Dorothy May Short was born January 22, 1928 in Detroit, Michigan and relinquished into the "legal" custody (or adopted) by Robert and Daisy C. Short. The youngest of four siblings, as a young lady. Dorothy did things that were requested of her such as tap, ballet, and piano and oh could mommy sing and dance too! Dorothy was educated in Sacred Heart Catholic School and later on completed Cass Technical High night school, while married, raising four children and two dogs and in between jobs and keeping our home in complete order.

Going along life's journey, Dorothy eventually met and married W.J. Dorsey and to this blessed union four children were born to them, Carolless Dorsey, who preceded mom in death, Reneé Dorsey, Michelle Dorsey, Byron Jay Dorsey.

Mommy always made sure we kids had everything we needed and some of the things we wanted too. Our mother taught us how to cook, clean and do laundry. She volunteered at "our" school, played with us, danced with us and how she loved the block club parties and oh my, was Dorothy ever so very, very "funny" and above all else...intense with "common sense!" Oh yeah, loving, tender and sensitive. So thankful to have had the best mommy in the whole wide world.

Dorothy, also was slammin' when it came to putting out an unbelievable spread, wow!!!... Could she throw down in the kitchen, not only that, she had the flare to sew making us girls matching dresses of course when she had the extra time. Dorothy also had the gift of art and decorating genius. You know, Dorothy always "nailed it" when you challenged her to something, and she always rose to the occasion and didn't flinch.

“ I always felt as if I knew Mother Dorsey because her light shown through her daughter Michelles light. I feel sad because I know she'll be missed by everyone who loves her; but I feel happiness to know that "absences from the body means presence with the Lord". Let our Savior comfort you in your time of need. Love you. Riccie and Bill Jones & Family
