Celebrating The Life Of Dorothy Jean Hopkins

Mrs. Dorothy Jean Lee was born on July 29, 1941 in Laurel, Mississippi to Eula (Waller) Lee and Elmer Lee. She accepted Christ at an early age, and loved reading her Bible faithfully. She was educated in the Laurel Public Schools, and graduated from Oak Park High School.

As a young adult she moved to Detroit, MI, where she began her career at Lincoln Convalescent Center, which lasted more than twenty years. She spent the remainder of her career at Detroit Riverview Hospital from which she retired. She was a compassionate woman who always thought of others first.

On December 22, 1978 she married the love of her life Reuben Hopkins. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Dorothy loved to spend time with her husband, visiting family and friends, and traveling. Her passions included entertaining family and friends, cooking, watching game shows, reading novels, and solving crossword puzzles.

Dorothy was a very wise woman, who enjoyed communicating by writing letters to family and friends. She was a person who people loved to confide in, many looked to her for good sound advice.

Dorothy's greatest joy was spending time with her great-grandson (LJ) who brought a big smile to her face. She was extremely proud of all of her grandchildren whom she would spend quality time with, and loved talking about them to everyone.

Dorothy departed this life on December 1, 2016.

“ The Jasper Family (Laurel Ms) was like to express our condolence to our family for the loss of Aunt Dot. She will be missed we will always carry her memory in our hearts. Chris Dee Dee, and Tasha hold on to God's unchanging hands. We pray for your strength, comfort, and understanding during this difficult time. Psalms 121" I will lift up my eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help, My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth". Continue to look toward the hills family. He is the only means of refuge in our lives. We love you and will continue to keep you all lifted in prayer.

“ My sympathy to the family. It is not easy when someone we love dies, the pain and feeling of helplessness can seem unbearable mere words cannot convey the overwhelming feeling of disbelief. May you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you.-
Psalms 55:22

WE

“ Please accept my condolences for the passing of your dear loved one. When someone we love dies, the heartache and grief can be great. I hope that you can be comforted knowing that Jehovah cares for you and sees your pain. (1 Peter 5:7) "He is close to the brokenhearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18) May you find comfort and relief during this grievous time, as you cherish the precious memories of Dorothy.
