“ To my oldest and dearest big sister. I thank God for you. We were close and you always took care of me and the girls without hesitation. You were my friend and my protector. I'm going to miss your warm and giving heart. I'm going miss your laughter and your smile. I miss you my big sister, you can rest in peace knowing that you put everyone first and yourself last. You brought the money home big sis and you help mother take care of the family. God gifted you with a heart of gold and you shared it with the family and the world. I'm going to continue to use your sincere words of encouragement to inspire myself and others. You would always say I love all my brothers and sisters no matter what and you showed that. You are truly irreplaceable no one can ever take your place. The mold was broken after the good lord created you. To my Doeski my one and only big sis i will see you and our mother again.

*Love you
