

Mrs. Dorothy Marie Wilson

October 17, 1925 - December 17, 2015

In Loving Memory Of Dorothy Marie Wilson:

Dorothy Marie Wilson, born Dorothy Marie Miller, was born October 17, 1925 to Ethel Miller in Charleston, West Virginia. She was raised by her mother and grandparents, Nancy and George Miller of the renowned Miller Shoe Company. She later moved to Detroit where she married Kendrick Goldsmith and during that union they had six children. They were Florence, Kenneth, Donna Jean, Artis, Arron and Leonard. All of her children preceded her in death except for Donna Jean.

Dorothy was an only child. But she always had a multitude of family and friends around her. She later moved to Pasadena, California where she was remarried to Vhroman Wilson, her soul mate. There she had a beautiful life. She loved fishing at Saltan Sea in California's Imperial and Coachella valleys. Dorothy also loved to travel in their mobile home which her and Vhroman did often. She was a housewife, but she had also worked various positions in management. For that is exactly what her personality dictated. She was an astute manager of life and its affairs. Dorothy was known for being most direct with her words. And her words were usually most appreciated.

“ Marie family, please accept my condolences for the passing of your dear loved one. When someone we love dies, the heartache and grief can be great. I hope that you can be comforted knowing that God cares for you and sees your pain. (1 Peter 5:7) "He is close to the brokenhearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18) May you find comfort and relief during this grievous time, as you cherish the precious memories of Dorothy.

“ I had no better companion when it came to discussing and pondering the plight of mankind. Through the years I've had countless thoughtful and inspiring conversations with Gram and I feel blessed that I was able to share her last best days with her. We had some good laughs and watched old westerns and for now and evermore I'll always associate "Monte Walsh" with Gram. :) That was a good one we agreed!

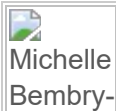

Rest In Peace now with those that went before you and I'll see you when my work is done.

All my love,

David
